Fugitive slave-law.

These fugitive slaves of Maryland were worth about one hundred thousand dollars, enough to pay the expenses of her State government. If that much reach here, and will not likely be brought in before the bridge foreign State on any pretence in one year, we should send navies and armies to demand indemnity for the past and security for the future. But as it is enticed from a single State by the bad faith of several of her sisters, it is regarded as a very moderate tribute paid for the privilege of having the South governed by the North.

Baltimore .... 1 per cent. | Philadelphia .... 1 per cent.

BACON-The stock of Bacon continues to decrease in the absence of receipts, and the supply now in store is going off

BEEF CATTLE-The market continues without change, se far as regards prices. See table. Conx-2,000 bushels prime white corn, from Norfolk, sold at 60 cents per bushel. MEAL-Supply fair and price firm.

Small lot at quotations. Coffee-Sales continus very dull No change in prices. FLOUR-Sale of 20 barrels Fayetteville flour, from last year's wheat, at $4 50 to $5 per bbl. Sales of Baltimore and other brands, in lots to suit, at quotations. HAY-Sale of 200 bales Eastern hay at 60 cts. per 100 lbs. LARD-A few barrels North Caroline have been received this week, and sold quick at 121 a 12 cents per lb. Very scarce, and much wanted.

Lime-None received. LUMBER-None arriving.

Liquors-Firm-in quantity to suit.

Molasses-We neglected to notice last Thursday the receipt of 250 hhds. of molasses from Cuba, which arrived here about two weeks ago. It has been stored, and, we believe, has not been put upon the market. Sales of former receipts remarkably slow at 19 cents per gallon. We think there is now about 300 hhds. in first hands, 250 of which have not place is sold for division among the heirs, and terms will be

NAVAL STORES-The sales since our last have reached 2,-700 barrels, at an advance on last Thursday's prices of 5 cents per barrel for both virgin and yellow dippings. The sales to-day, included in above estimate, have been 554 barrels, at about 460 barrels, at an advance of from 2 to 3 cents per gallon on last week's business. We quote sales for the week at It appears from the returns that the State of 28, 284 and 29 cents; closing yesterday at highest figure .whether factors will be able to obtain the advance asked or not. [The bulk alluded to last week as expected from beyond the "burnt bridge," has but little of it been able to can be placed in a condition for the freight trains to pass over, which will probably be in two or three weeks. PEAS-We hear of no receipts since our last. Our quotations are for retail prices only. Pork-Mess pork continues firm.

SHINGLES-Common cypress shingles sell at about $2 25 to $2 50 per Ma; a prime article will bring $3. Contract, or heavy cypress, are selling at $5 to $5 50 per M. FREIGHTS-Are without change. A number of vessels have obtained cargoes since our last at quotations. BALTIMORE, July 15.—Flour $4 00 a $4 124. Corn meal, $2 874 a $2 94. Rye flour $3 50. Wheat 90 a $1 00. Corn ness generally is dull.
